

HEALING FOR THE HOMES SERIES

GOD, AM I TRULY IN RIGHT STANDING FOR YOU?

Search me, O God,
and know my heart;
test me and know
my anxious thoughts.

DEDICATION

This booklet is dedicated to the believer who worships with hands raised and doubt in their heart — the one who has accepted Jesus but still wonders, "Am I really okay with God?" You are not alone in that question. And by the end of these pages, you will have an answer rooted not in your feelings, but in the unshakable Word of God.

A MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

Dear friend,

One of the most tormenting questions a believer can carry is the question of their standing with God. "Am I really saved? Did my repentance count? Has God truly accepted me?" I have seen this doubt paralyze believers, steal their joy, and keep them from stepping into their God-given calling.

The enemy loves to keep you questioning your relationship with God — because a believer who is unsure of their standing will never walk in authority. This booklet is designed to settle that question once and for all — not based on your emotions, but based on the finished work of Jesus Christ.

Read these pages and let the truth set you free from the torment of uncertainty. You are about to discover just how secure you are in Him.

With all my love in Christ,

The Cry of the Soul

You said the prayer. You meant it. You felt the tears and the relief and the overwhelming sense that something had shifted in the deepest part of your being. For a while — maybe days, maybe weeks, maybe months — you walked in a peace you had never known.

And then the doubt crept in.

It started small — a whisper after a bad day, a question after a stumble: "Did you really mean it? Was it enough? Are you truly saved, or are you just going through the motions?"

Then it grew. You watched other believers who seemed so confident in their faith — so sure of their position in God — and you wondered, "What do they have that I don't?" You questioned whether you repented properly, whether your prayer was sincere enough, whether you've been good enough since then to maintain your salvation.

And now the doubt has become a constant companion. It follows you into prayer and makes you feel like an impostor. It sits with you during worship and whispers, "He doesn't hear you. You're not really His." It robs your communion with God of all its sweetness and replaces it with anxiety.

This doubt is one of the most common and most crippling experiences in the Christian walk. And it is rooted not in truth, but in a fundamental misunderstanding of how God makes a person righteous.

Let me show you the truth — and the truth will set you free.

What the Bible Says

The Bible teaches a doctrine called justification by faith — and it is the single most important truth a believer can understand. Justification means "to be declared righteous." It is a legal term — a verdict. And it is pronounced by God Himself, the Supreme Judge of all creation.

""Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.""

— Romans 5:1 (NKJV)

Notice: "having been justified." Past tense. Completed action. If you have placed your faith in Jesus Christ, you have already been justified. The verdict has already been rendered. The gavel has already come down. And the Judge does not reverse His own ruling.

This justification is not based on your performance. It is based on Christ's performance on your behalf:

""For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.""

— 2 Corinthians 5:21 (NKJV)

Jesus took your sin. You received His righteousness. This was an exchange — not an achievement. You did not earn it, which means you cannot lose it through poor performance. It is a gift, received by faith:

""For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.""

— Ephesians 2:8–9 (NKJV)

If salvation is not by works, then it cannot be maintained by works. And if it cannot be maintained by works, then your bad days, your stumbles, and your imperfections do not cancel it. The gift is irrevocable:

""For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.""

— Romans 11:29 (NKJV)

Paul addresses the question of condemnation more directly than anywhere else in Scripture in Romans chapter 8:

""There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.""

— Romans 8:1 (NKJV)

No condemnation. Not "a little condemnation." Not "condemnation when you mess up." No condemnation. If you are in Christ, the verdict is final: not guilty.

And then Paul asks a series of questions that should silence every doubt:

""Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also risen, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.""

— Romans 8:33–34 (NKJV)

Who is bringing the charge against you? It is not God — He is the One who justified you. It is not Christ — He died for you, rose for you, and is right now at the right hand of the Father praying for you. The only one bringing charges is the accuser — Satan — and his accusations have already been overruled by the blood of Jesus.

The Root of the Pain

Performance-Based Religion. Many believers struggle with assurance because they were taught — explicitly or implicitly — that their standing with God depends on their behavior. If you grew up in a religious environment that emphasized rules over grace, punishment over mercy, and perfection over progress, you may have internalized a works-based view of salvation without even realizing it.

This creates a spiritual treadmill: you are always running, always striving, never arriving. And any failure — no matter how small — triggers the fear that you have fallen out of God's favor.

But the Gospel is the opposite of a treadmill. It is a finished work. Jesus said, "It is finished" (John 19:30). Not "it is ongoing." Not "it depends on you." Finished.

The Enemy's Accusations. Satan is called "the accuser of the brethren" (Revelation 12:10) — and his primary weapon against believers is doubt about their salvation. He cannot take your salvation away, so he tries to make you believe you never had it or that you've lost it.

His accusations sound like your own thoughts: "You're not good enough." "You sinned again — God is done with you." "Real Christians don't struggle like you do." "Your faith isn't strong enough." These are lies from the father of lies (John 8:44), and you must learn to identify and reject them.

Unprocessed Guilt. Sometimes doubt about your standing is fueled by genuine guilt over specific sins. The solution is not more doubt — it is confession:

""If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.""

— 1 John 1:9 (NKJV)

When you confess, God is faithful (He keeps His promise) and just (He applies the payment Christ already made) to forgive and cleanse. The sin is dealt with. The slate is clean. If you have confessed it, stop carrying it. God has already dropped the charges.

Emotional Instability. Our feelings fluctuate daily. Some mornings you feel close to God; other mornings you feel nothing. If you base your assurance on feelings, you will be saved on Tuesday and lost on Thursday. But your standing with God is not determined by your emotions. It is determined by the blood of Jesus Christ — and that blood does not fluctuate.

""God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?""

— Numbers 23:19 (NKJV)

Christ's Healing Power

I want to show you something that should anchor your soul forever. In the Gospel of John, Jesus made a promise about your security that leaves no room for doubt:

""My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand.""

— John 10:27–29 (NKJV)

You are in Christ's hand. And Christ is in the Father's hand. You are held by two hands of God — double grip, unbreakable hold. No devil, no demon, no failure, no weakness, no accusation can pry you out of those hands.

And Paul seals this truth with one of the most powerful declarations in all of Scripture:

""For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.""

— Romans 8:38–39 (NKJV)

Nothing. Not death. Not life. Not angels. Not demons. Not your past. Not your future. Not anything in all of creation can separate you from God's love in Christ. If that list does not cover your specific worry, nothing does — because Paul included literally everything that exists.

You are secure. You are justified. You are in right standing with God. Not because of who you are, but because of Whose you are.

Let that truth reach the place where the doubt lives. Let it flood the courtroom of your mind with the verdict of heaven: not guilty, now and forever.

Healing Prayers

A Prayer for Assurance of Salvation

Father, I have doubted my standing with You for too long. Today, I choose to believe Your Word over my feelings. Your Word says I am justified by faith. Your Word says there is no condemnation for me. Your Word says nothing can separate me from Your love. I receive these truths into the deepest part of my spirit. I am saved. I am forgiven. I am Yours. Silence every accusing voice. Let the peace of assurance settle into my heart and never leave. In Jesus' name, amen.

A Prayer Against the Spirit of Accusation

In the name of Jesus Christ, I take authority over every spirit of accusation and condemnation that has been tormenting my mind. You are a liar and the father of lies. My God has justified me. My Savior has paid for my sin. The Holy Spirit has sealed me. I am not guilty. I reject your accusations and I receive the peace of God. Leave my mind now, in Jesus' name. I am free. Amen.

A Prayer for Confidence in Christ

Lord Jesus, I want to walk with confidence — not in myself, but in what You have done for me. Teach me to stand on the finished work of the cross, not on the shifting sand of my own performance. Let me worship without doubt. Let me pray without fear. Let me serve with boldness. I am in right standing with You — not because I am perfect, but because You are. In Your name, amen.

Prophetic Declarations

"I am justified by faith. I am in right standing with God."

"There is no condemnation for me in Christ Jesus."

"I am not saved by my works. I am saved by His grace."

"The blood of Jesus speaks better things than my failures."

"I am sealed by the Holy Spirit. My salvation is secure."
"No weapon formed against my assurance shall prosper."
"I am held in the hands of Christ and the hands of the Father."
"The accuser's charges have been dismissed. God is my judge."
"My feelings do not determine my standing. God's Word does."
"I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded He is able to keep what I have committed to Him."

Reflection & Healing

Reflect on These Questions

1. Where does your doubt about your standing with God come from? Is it based on feelings, specific sins, or what someone taught you?
2. Have you been basing your assurance on your performance rather than on the finished work of Christ? How can you shift that?
3. What accusation has the enemy been repeating in your mind? Write it down, then write God's answer from Scripture next to it.
4. Read Romans 8:31–39 slowly. Which verse speaks most powerfully to your specific doubt?
5. What would change in your life if you truly believed — without question — that you are in right standing with God?
6. How can you remind yourself daily of your security in Christ? (A verse on your mirror, a daily declaration, a prayer journal?)

Child of God, the question has been answered. Not by me, but by the blood. You are righteous — not because you are good, but because He is. Walk in that truth. It is yours forever.

A CLOSING PRAYER

Father God, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ, I speak to every spirit of doubt, condemnation, and insecurity that has been tormenting this reader. Your assignment is over. They are saved. They are forgiven. They are in right standing with God — not by their works, but by the blood of Jesus Christ.

Lord, let the reality of justification settle deep into their spirit. Let them walk with confidence, worship with freedom, and serve with boldness. They are Your child. Nothing can change that.

I decree that doubt is leaving and assurance is coming. I decree that they know — they truly know — that they are right with You. In Jesus' name, amen.

AN INVITATION TO CHRIST

If you have never made a conscious decision to accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, this is the moment. Pray: "Lord Jesus, I am a sinner in need of grace. I believe You died on the cross for my sins and rose from the dead. I confess You as my Lord and Savior. I receive the gift of righteousness that comes through faith in You. I am saved. I am forgiven. I am in right standing with God. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit. In Jesus' name, amen."
